

A Family Medicine Without Alcohol

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic and alterative, free from alcohol. What is a "tonic"? A medicine that imparts strength or tone; a medicine that builds up, gives vigor and power. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Ayer's Sarsaparilla does all this without stimulation. Ask your doctor if a family medicine, like Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is not vastly better without alcohol than with it.

PRESIDENT SUN ACCUSED YUAN SHIH KAI OF TURPITUDE

LONDON, January 29.—A dispatch from Tientsin to the Exchange Telegraph Company says the imperial family met at the palace in Peking on Sunday to consider the question of abdication. Yuan Shih Kai has consented to the convening of the National Assembly either at Hankow or Tsingtau.

According to the Daily Telegraph's Peking correspondent, President Sun Yat Sen has sent a note to the powers through the Peking legations stigmatizing Yuan Shih Kai as the champion of the Manchus and accusing him of repudiating his pledges and agreements and of intriguing to secure the dictatorship.

The President says the Republicans have not changed their terms, but will insist upon a guarantee that Premier Yuan Shih Kai will work solely for sound republican government.

Bomb and revolver outrages are increasing in Peking, Tsientsin and Mukden. There have been thirty-two of these in Mukden in the last five days.

A Shanghai dispatch to the Telegram says the National Convention at Nanking has resolved unanimously not to extend the armistice.

Wu Sends a Threat.

PEKING, January 28.—The Peking Government is trying to secure an extension of the armistice, but Wu Tingfang, Republican Minister of Justice at Shanghai, has telegraphed, threatening to renew hostilities tomorrow unless abdication is accomplished.

Three thousand more of Yuan Shih Kai's troops have arrived in Peking, bringing the total up to 7000 men.

Tieh Liang, former Tartar general at Nanking, who has been opposed strongly to Premier Yuan, has fled from Peking and is supposed to have gone to Tientsin.

Fighting Not Expected.

NANKING, January 29.—The armistice that has been in operation several weeks expired today, but no definite steps have been taken for its renewal.

REPRESENTATIVE LINDBERG

WASHINGTON, January 5.—Charles A. Lindbergh, who represents the Seventh Minnesota district, wants the house to conduct an inquiry into financial affairs with especial reference to the way the business affairs of the big life insurance companies are carried on. The resolution he has introduced provides for such an investigation in an effort to learn the identity of those who "control credits and the money supply." Mr. Lindbergh, who is a Republican, does not believe that the senate should be asked to aid in the inquiry, as he thinks the money power has too much influence in the senate.

newal. Neither Tang Shou Yi, the representative of Yuan Shih Kai, nor Wu Tingfang, the Republican Minister of Justice, expects serious fighting. Dr. Wu said in this connection: "There is no one to fight; all are our friends."

Chang Hsuan, commander of the Imperial troops, has his central base at Su-Chow-Fu, in the northern part of Kiangsu province. Under his direct command are 8000 good fighters, insured to the winter. The revolutionists' center is at Lyhwal Kwan, in Nanking province, about 100 miles from Nanking. The revolutionists number 15,000 men, eager for fighting, but not acclimated.

General Chang now occupies a special car, a point of vantage from which he directs his troops, but a significant fact is that an engine is attached at both ends of the car. His retreat, however, is cut off 100 miles to the north by the cities along the railway line, which a few days ago went over to the revolutionists.

Sun Urges Unity.

It is believed here that abdication will come when Yuan Shih Kai is satisfied that the Chinese troops in Peking are sufficient in numbers to control the Manchus.

The new Senate was inaugurated here yesterday. It is made up of forty-two senators, who appeared in foreign dress. President Sun Yat Sen, in his speech, urged unity. He said that it was proposed by the new regime to build up, not to destroy.

At the close of the President's address, there was an impressive scene, the members rising in a body and giving three cheers for the republic. The hall was decorated handsomely and a military band played popular airs familiar to the foreigners.

President Sun has sent a telegram to Yuan Shih Kai informing him that if abdication is imminent he would hold back the republican troops for two or three days.

JULIAN HAWTHORNE HELD IN $10,000

NEW YORK, January 8.—Julian Hawthorne, son of Nathaniel Hawthorne, and himself a writer of some note, will appear again Wednesday, January 10, before Judge Hough in the criminal branch of the United States district court to answer to the five indictments charging him and several associates with using the mails to defraud through selling mining stock. He was held last Friday under $10,000 after his plea of not guilty. Ex-Mayor Josiah Quincy of Boston, Albert Freeman, Dr. W. J. Morton and John McKinnon were also named in the indictments.

face in Venice, a seaside resort, that the charges against him would be reported today and he at once set about arranging for bail. Mrs. Lecompte Davis, wife of one of Darrow's associates in the McNamara case, and Colonel Charles S. Young, a friend of the accused lawyer, supplied the bail fixed for Judge N. P. Conroy, who set for Presiding Judge George H. Hutton.

"I was expecting to be indicted," said Darrow, "and I am prepared for it. I engaged Earl Rogers of this city to represent me and Judge Cyrus F. McNutt, now in Los Angeles and formerly of the superior bench of Indiana, probably will assist him. Judge McNutt was associated with me in the McNamara defense."

"All I'll say in regard to the indictment is this: I've repeatedly said that I know nothing about any attempt to bribe or influence a juror. I repeat that steadily. I confidently hope and expect to be acquitted."

Fredericks Prejudges Him.

TAMPA, Fla., January 29.—"There is no chance for Darrow to escape," remarked District Attorney Fredericks of Los Angeles, when shown a dispatch tonight announcing the indictment of Clarence Darrow.

"We knew when Juror Bain took his seat that he had been bribed and we knew who did it. I expected the indictment would come today."

Fredericks will leave here tomorrow for Key West, but will return to Los Angeles in time to take personal charge of the prosecution in the bribery cases.

UNCLE SAM WILL BUILD HIGHWAYS

The first definite step toward the realization of the project for Federal aid in highway construction was taken at the Good Roads Federal Aid Convention called by the American Automobile Association and held in Washington January 16 and 17. For the first time every element among those who are working for good roads was represented in a single gathering, and a unanimous agreement was made upon a program to be presented to congress and urged by all good roads enthusiasts throughout the country.

What made the occasion particularly notable was the very definite pledge given by many members of congress, including Speaker Champ Clark and Representative Oscar W. Underwood, leader of the majority party in the lower house, that whenever the good roads advocates got together upon a single plan congress would act without delay. In view of these pledges, the adoption without a dissenting vote of a plan for congressional action is of special and timely importance.

The representation at the convention was extremely diversified. Thirty-eight states were represented in the convention, including 115 delegates named by the governors of twenty-three states.

The resolution finally agreed upon by the committee on resolutions, and after considerable debate, unanimously adopted, placed the convention on record in favor of the passage of a bill creating a National Highways

Commission to consist of a chairman and fifteen members, the chairman and five members to be named by the President, five members to be named by the senate and five by the house of representatives. The purpose of this commission is stated in the bill to be the study and investigation of the good roads problem from the viewpoint of the federal government's position and to prepare a plan for federal participation and report its findings to the President not later than December 1, 1913. The commission is to have full power to call on all government bureaus for assistance to employ such help as may be necessary and to work out a comprehensive plan for financial aid to good roads by congressional action. This gives for the first time a starting point for federal aid, and, in view of the assurances given publicly to the members of the convention by the congressional speakers, there is every reason to believe that this bill will be passed at the present session of congress.

DOWN AT HALEIWA.

There is a particular charm about Haleiwa on a moonlight night. The automobile, in the rent service, being a part of the hotel equipment, is at the call of the guests for a night drive around the country as well as a daylight drive through the pineapple plantations. The regular monthly full moon dance is also a feature of life at Haleiwa that is enjoyed by the transient as well as the permanent guest. It is everything for the comfort of the patrons and the result is highly satisfactory. The trains on the O. R. & L. go to the entrance of the hotel grounds.
